Source: Yusef PERI who emigrated (with his wife and one child) to the US (now living in Youngstown) from Poland in early February. Source's last employment was for a gas pipe-line concern in VABZHYNISK. His work took him to SVIDNITSA, LEHNITSA and other areas. Source stated that in late 1961 Soviet military groups arrived at the western border of Poland. He personally saw the transport of large tanks and heavy artillery. He was told by acquaintances of his that they saw larger military groups in VROTSILAW, YEL'ENA GYRA and ZGOZHAL'ETS. In addition he saw military echelons at railroad stations. The Soviet military personnel was restricted to its bases and not permitted to mingle with the local population.
